

Heaven or hell (Lyrics by Guido Block)

Yeah

Now I'm gonna tell you a story of a dream I had...

Check it out...

Dreaming...

I was riding down the freeway
The wind was ruffling my hair
Everything was perfect
A kind of magic in the air
Suddenly a noise of screaming tires
I'll be damned
Then 16 tons of steel transformed
My beetle in a stamp

The next thing i saw was a place
So nice that I can't tell
I thought: "Jesus what a stroke of luck
I'm sure this must be heaven and not hell!"

There were fields of green
And there was laughter in the air
I saw a crowd of dancing people
'Cause there was music everywhere
I took a little walk but then
I couldn't believe my eyes
Stevie Ray and Jimi jamming
Through the day and 'til the night

Oh my god! I'm dreaming!
This can't be true!

'n' I begged:
"Guys! If we could play together
I would be happy as I can tell!"
Jimi laughed and said:
"Sure brother you know
This ain't heaven man...it's hell!

They always told me hell is torture
I was convinced that hell is sad
And only heaven is the right place
Listen people:
I swear that hell just ain't so bad!
Ain't so bad!
