

Lucky me (Lyrics by Guido Block)

The more I take a look
The more I have to say
My situation's getting nicer everyday
My wife has left me
And my dog has left me too
She was the meanest hag I ever met or knew

She took my money
And then she took my car away
My lawyer told me:
"You will pay and pay and pay!"

I climbed the highest tops and I sailed the seven seas
I was searching everywhere
But there's noone else like me
Call it lack of luck
You can call it as you want
But after all these years I'm tired and I'm stunned

Look at my body
And you'll see I'm still o.k.
I think I'm lucky
I don't care what people say

The more I take a look
The more I have to say
My situation's getting nicer everyday
My wife has left me, yeah
But I don't give a damn
'Cause in the end I think
That I'm a lucky man!
Yeah!